

DB Rail Connect, a single electronic ticket for your train and flight reservations

The network of high-speed trains is constantly expanding and ensures that large European cities are increasingly well connected. Airlines often also offer high-speed train journeys to connect intercontinental flights in major European airports.

Thanks to DB Rail Connect you can, from wherever in the world, book your flight and train tickets for ICE trains between Belgium and Germany and all this in one go!

Your advantages as traveller

- In one single purchase, book your train and flight ticket
- Pay less airport taxes
- No need to arrive early for check in
- 100 % e-tickets

Travelling from/to Belgium via Frankfurt Airport

Brussels-Midi,
Brussels-North,
Liège-Guillemins

Frankfurt Airport

Singapore,
Windhoek,
Hanoi...

ICE trains connect Brussels-Midi/North and Liège-Guillemins with Frankfurt Airport. You can only travel between the train stations and on the service indicated on your e-ticket. Your seat reservation is included.

How to receive your train ticket?

Earliest 72 hours before train departure, you will have to check in via check-in.accesrail.com to print your train ticket. Keep your reservation number (PNR locator) or e-ticket number handy to facilitate check-in.

CHECK-IN: click here

IMPORTANT

- After you have exchanged your e-ticket for a train ticket, the ticket cannot be changed or cancelled.
- In case of disruptions, please contact your travel agency or airline.

